STORMY CAREER OF GEN. CARRANZA ENDS IN DEATH

VETERAN PRESIDENT OF MEXICO KILLED BY ONE OF HIS OWN GENERALS

Several Other Members of Party Also Murdered, Says Report—Details of Slaying Meagre—Carranza Was the Head of the Seventy Second Government Since 1821

EL PASO, Texas, May 22.—Venusiato Carranza, president of Mexico and head of the seventy second government that country has had since 1821, was assassinated at 1 o'clock a. m. Friday by Col. Rodolfo Herrero and his soldiers at Tlaxcaltenango, Puebla, according to messages received here from General Alvaro Obregon dated at Mexico City today.

"There were found six or seven more bodies of the men in Carranza's party," said one message from Obregon. "It is not stated whom these men might be."

Reports given out by the revolutionists said Carranza was assassinated by his own men. Herrero was described as an ex-federal officer. He was once an officer in the Mexican army under President Diaz, who was forced to flee Mexico in 1911.

Carranza was made a prisoner and cowardly assassinated at the of "Viva Obregon" by Col. Rodolfo Herrero and his men according to a message from his chief followers to Gen. Pablo Gonzales quoted in his message to revolutionary agents. Obregon answered the message in scathing terms. He declared that if the Carranza followers who signed themselves, numbering more than thirty men, and including Juan Barragon, chief of staff, Ignacio Bonillas, former ambassador to the United States, whose candidacy for the presidency brought on the latest revolution and other prominent leaders, had "died defending your chief * * * you would be at rest with your consciences and escape the shame of your cowardice."

Obregon told the Carranzaists they were sufficient in number to have done their duty.

Details Lacking

Washington, May 22.—V. Carranza has joined the long line of Latin-American dictators who have ended their stormy careers in flight and death.

A fugitive in the mountains of Puebla the old man who kept the United States and Mexico in a broil for the last five years, was killed on Thursday by some of the troops which had protected him as a loyal bodyguard in his flight from the Mixican capital.

Whether he fell fighting or a victim of the celebrated "Ley Fuega" which made dead men of Madero and Suarez or actually was murdered in a coup d' etat is obscured in such fragmentary information as has come out of the tropical fastness of Tlaxcaltonga, where he died.

Early dispatches today from Mexico City said the former president had been killed in an attack led by General Herrera, who had gone with Carranza in flight but later deserted to the revolutionists.

Later advices received in El Paso charged that Carranza had been made a prisoner and assassinated in a "cowardly manner" and said some of the friends who were with him at the time had sent a protest to General Pablo Gonzales.

The full story may not be immediately known and even then may be the subject of dispute. But it does bring to mind a prophecy, said to have been made by a nun, which is now being talked about all over Mexico.

The nun prophesied, according to report, that after Mexico had seen three Franciscos in public life she would have for president an old man with a beard who would meet a violent death and that he would be succeeded by a president who mounted his horse from the "wrong" side. The phophecy also added that thereafter Mexico would lose its independence.

There have been three Franciscos in Mexico's public life since the prophecy was made, and Obregon, who led the revolt against him lost an arm in the battle of Celaya, with Villa, and mounts his horse from the "wrong" side.

Carranza's death and the manner of it probably will have some important mearing upon the action of the United States when the time comes to consider recognition of the government which succeeds him. When President Wilson was refusing to recognize Huerta he based his action on the untimely deaths of Madero and Suarez and announced that no government would be recognized which did not rest on constitutional elections and which was based on force of arms alone. As it is generally recognized that no government in Mexand what responsibility the presico could hope to stand without recognition from the United States ent revolutions this May share in it, is regarded by officials here as certain to become a large element in this government's action.

FREIGHT JAM REPORTED BROKEN

WASHINGTON, May 22.—The edge apparently has been broken off the nation wide freight jam through joint efforts of the railroads, the interstate commerce commission and shippers.

Advices tonight from the principal congested sections showed a slight and continued decline in the number of loaded cars awaiting movement. With this drastic step taken by the government in ordering complete disregard of re-routing and swift change of equipment was counted on as a "starter."

ABOUT THE PRICE CUTTING SALES

Jacksonville merchants, particularly those dealing in apparel for men and women, find nothing very significant in the price cutting sales which are in progress in the larger cities all over the country. They say that these sales are the natural result of the late spring and also because of delays due to freight congestion. The city stores, and smaller ones for that matter regularly have their early summer clearing sales and in this instance the news agencies have called attention to the sales in a way that has never been done before.

In a city the size of Jacksonville the merchants constantly sell goods at a less margin of profit that is charged at the big city stores and larger city sale discounts are possible. Merchants here are of one accord in stating that there is nothing in wholesale market conditions to indicate that hey will be able to make purchases at prices lower than they have prevailed, and in shome instances the wholesalers are unhesitatingly quoting higher prices.

JUST THE USUAL KIND.

Now the present revolution in Mexico is just like all the rest. Until the news of Carranza's assassination it had been termed a bloodless revolution and as such held a unique place in the troublous and blood history of that country.

MUST FIND BERGDOLL.

Grover Bergdoll who was sentenced to five years in a federal prison as a draft dodger, has escaped under suspicious circumstances. Government officials should make every effort to apprehend this man and see that the terms of his court martial are carried out. Otherwise it will be the old story which certain elements seize on so eagerly, that money is the biggest factor in present day affairs and that the power of the dollar overrides law and justice.

SLOW FREIGHT MOVEMENT.

There is a lot of truth to the statement that the congestion of freight has had much to do with the present situation as to prices and supplies. A shipment made to Chicago April 9 by a Jacksonville firm was unloaded only a few days ago. It took six weeks not for the journey from Jacksinville to Chicago but to get thru the congested railroad yards and up to the freight depot platform.

SHOULD COURT PUBLICITY.

The coal operators who were several weeks ago indicted by the government under the labor act are making strenuous efforts to avoid trial. Those that live in Illinois resist removal to Indianapolis. This resistance on the part of the coal men puts their cause in a bad light before the public. They would have a much more advantageous position if they showed a willingness to go to trial and to bring out all the facts about the coal situation into the limelight.

YEARS NOT THE MEASURE OF AGE.

Charles P. Johnson, long a prominent figure in Missouri politics and as a lawyer, died Friday at the age of 84. On the day of his death he was an office holder and in active legal practice.

Age is evidently a matter not of years but of spirit. For sixty years this man practiced law and was active in the day to day work of the world. Some men are old at 40. Evidently age cannot be definitely measured in terms of months and years.

PAGE TWO THE LOWER COST MEASURE.

Insurgents of both parties in the house and senate at Washington object to a recess until some definite action has been taken on the measures purporting to reduce living costs. The insurgents have the best of the argument. If these measures will give relief they should be adopted. If they are not worth while some disposition should be made of them quickly.

THE POINT OF HUMAN CONTACT.

A speaker who addressed a conference of manufacturers in Chicago Friday created a good deal of enthusiasm when he blamed employers for much of the present day unrest. He charged that employers too long ignored the work that the I. W. W. agitators were doing and neglected to offset that work with the propaganda of real facts.

He said that all this trouble will end when there is the "right point of human contact between the office and the work shop. There is something to the statement but that "point of contact" cannot come until there is the proper spirit—a desire for fairness and justice—in the hearts of both employers and employes. There can be no one-sided settlement. One cannot dominate the other. There must come confidence and a realization that while the lines of work diverge that final interests are in common.

IBANEZ RILES THE MEXICAN.

Senor Vincente Blansco Ibanez famous author of "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," whose latest novel "The Enemies of Women," has just started in a serial in Hearst's Magazine has, according to reports, also succeeded in making enemies of the Mexican people.

It all resulted from the attempt of Senor Ibanez to establish a more friendly feeling between the United States and Mexico.

The great Spanish novelist entered Mexico City a guest of honor. The whole city went wild over him. Fresh from his triumphs in the United States, Ibanez announced he was appearing in the Mexican capital as a dove of peace. The Mexican capital proceeded to hold dinners and receptions and parades in his honor. Then, right in the midst of them Senor Ibanez issued a statement of his impressions of Mexico. As usual the great Spanard was quite frank and while he was profuse in his praise of some traits of the Mexican people, he was just as frankly critical of others. There were many things about Mexico the senor did not like and he didn't hesitate to say so. The excitable Mexicans are rather sensitive to adverse criticism and forthwith decided they didn't like Senor Ibanez after all.

Whatever decline there may have been in Ibanez' Mexican vogue, he is still the literary idol of the world at large, as the enormous sales of his books, both here and abroad, testify.

The Decatur Review under the heading "Was Looking the Part," comments upon the fact that Horace Walton, train robber, was stopped by two policemen in Chicago very shortly after he had left the train which he had looted. The Review says this happened because there was something in the train robber's appearance or movements that made the officers suspicious of him. In other words, he was "looking the part."

That is an up-to-date statement of a very old truth, for a man looks the part that he lives. Usually that "look" is not a matter of a day's or a week's development. It is a character picture that the years have wrought.

A Jacksonville minister recently preached a sermon from the text, "And Moses wist not that his face did shine." From that text the minister went on to say that is a usual thing emotions had thoughts show upon the countenance, and that the story of the life that a man lives is written there.

Then he told the authenticated story of Leonardo da Vinci's painting of "The Last Supper." The great artist spent many days searching for a man with countenance pure and strong, fitted to pose for the model of Christ. Then he searched out models for the disciples, the whole process taking years. Finally the time came that he was ready to paint the face of Judas. Once more he took up the search, looking for a man of hardened countenance, one steeped in crime with the years of life illy spent. Finally he found such a subject and the forbidding face was reproduced. Then it was the artist found that the model for Christ and for Judas were one and the same. With passing years, the mode of life had made the change. The model was "looking the part."

Rippling Rhymes
By Walt Mason

Whether or No.

There'll be a panic soon or late, and things will creak and bust; how happy then the prudent skate who's salted down the dust! Financial prophets all agree that present things can't last; fate's brewing soup for you and me, and soon will stand aghast may be that the seers are wrong, for prophets sometimes fail, and life may be a grand sweet song, and men may still have kale. But as for me, I take no chance, and when I have a bone, I do not down the front street prance, to see it spent and blown. I take it to the banker's vault, a modern vault and fine, and watch him put it down in salt, with other bucks of mine. And if the panic men foresee should come to fill its date, it will not put a crimp in me, or my glad smiles abate. Each payday, with a certain sum, down to the bank I tread; and if the panic doesn't come, I'm just that much ahead.

HAS LARGE OILING CONTRACT

William Cocking was recently awarded the contract for nearly 100 miles of road oiling to be done in Rantoul, Ludlow and Compromise townships of Champaign county. The work will require something more than 300,000 gallons of oil. Mr. Cocking now does an extensive business as road oiling contractor and this year will have three outfits in the field as he recently purchased two additional trucks which will be equipped with oil distributing machinery. He was fortunate in contracting last fall for several million gallons of oil. In addition to taking contracts for road oiling work he is selling oil direct to counties doing oiling on their own account and also to contractors.

ARE POST-OFFICE EMPLOYES HUMAN BEINGS?
(The Literary Digest)

An American boy went to work one day in the United States postoffice. He was wide-awake and ambitious, and so he chose the biggest business and the biggest employer in the country. Step by step, he rose to be supervisor, and then superintendent of an important department. He made a record of "supreme industry, faithfulness, and loyalty." Age came on, but his zeal did not diminish. Postal officials pointed to him with pride and said he upheld "the very highest traditions of the service," and was "ever ready to sacrifice his personal interests for the public good." Seventy years without a break he served his big emplyer the American people, a shining example for all who would hear that crowning tribute—"well done, good and faithful servant!" Last winter, at his post of duty, he was stricken with a chill. Pneumonia followed. Even then be begged that he might dress and return to his duties. And his big employer—the American people—what generous provision and tender care did it give to this oldest employe who had always "sacrificed his personal interest for the public? The man had not yet taken his annual vacation of fifteen days. His absence now from his post of duty was charged against his vacation. In fifteen days all his "vacation" was gone and his salary stopped. For three days, as he lay on his death bed, his pay was deducted. Then death came, and he went to receive the well-done" from One whose words are backed with eternal reward. But on earth, where he had toiled so long, the praise given him was empty. No allowance for sickness; no allowance for burial; nothing for his family; his meager salary docked after seventy years of faithful service. What an employer!

Congress has been looking into these facts, but congress is not the "big employer' against whom the prophet Malachi thunders when he threatens swift judgment for 'those that oppress the hireling in his wages." The bitter protests poured out to the committee of congress must ring in our ears and rouse us to action. Crowding the experience of thousands into a single sentence, a letter carrier from Camden N. J., exclaimed: "If you men really knew the want, the distress, and sorrow, and trouble that reach into the life of the poor letter-carrier, you won't be up at night trying to find a remedy."

Consider the kind of man our postoffice demands as clerk. His work is highly specialized and complex; he must be skilled by long and intensive training and study, memorizing thousands of facts, intricate systems of classifications, and many methods used in banking, insurance, and commercial business. He must be familiar with the postal laws and regulations filling a volume of 1,700 sections. All this study and preparation must be in his own time and at his own expense. And when he stands in his hard-earned place, a full-equipped postal expert in the employ of the American people, he is paid less than the common unskilled day-laborer on the streets. One of these experts, who after twenty-four years of postal service had acquired spcial knowledge and experience invaluable to the Government, testified, "I could go out as a milk wagon driver and get $50 a week, yet the governmnt pays me an average of about $4 a day."

We are doing more than this act of cruel injustice to the 280,000 postal employes of the country. We are bringing a serious menace to our own interests. The postal service is being crippled by wholesale resignations. It is becoming impossible to induce competent men or women to fill the vacancies. In the New York postoffice alone more than five hundred resignations have occurred within five months. False economy is destroying all efficiency and threatening a collapse of th service. Time and energy that ought to be given to handling the mail is diverted to instructing and managing a shifting, disatisfied organization. The same thing is true in all parts of the country. Our indifferences and neglect as the "big employer," of the postoffice workers is recoiling on our own heads.

The Literary Digest has made thorough investigation of the facts and is making this brief, urgent statement to its more than two million readers because many times they have responded nobly to appeals for worthy action as Americans, and now it is a time for such action. Congress is not to blame for the existing conditions. The men now sitting in the capitol at Washington are human beings like the rest of us.

Write to your congressman and both of your senators, every one of you men and women who has a heart and an active sense of human justice. Don't put it off; the time before congress will adjourn is short. Urge them to give their most ardent support to the bill putting into immediate effect a substantial increase of salaries throughout the entire postal service of the United States. Congress will gladly and quickly pass this bill when the American people rally to its support. If you don't know the names of your congressman and and senators, ask your letter-carrier, or postmaster, or banker. Let all business houses be heard from, and all civic societies and fraternal orders. Rescue these postal toilers from penury and narrow lives and set them on their feet as American citizens who need not suffer nor be ashamed in their service to us all.

MADE ADDRESSES IN GIRARD

Dr. W. E. Spoonts returned yesterday noon from Girard where he delivered two addresses Friday. He talked to the students of the high school in the afternoon and at night talked before an audience in the Presbyterian church. Both addresses were based upon his experiences in Y. M. C. A., work overseas during the war period.

THE ADVICE OF LINCOLN

The National Bank of the Republic of Chicago in one of its recent publications sent out to correspondent banks lays special emphasis upon the statement made by President Lincoln in addressing the workmen's association in 1864. The bank believes that the words spoken more than a half century ago are true now and that they are especially applicable to the present conditions.

"Prosperity is the fruit of labor; property is desirable, is a positive good in the world. That some should be rich shows that others may become rich, and hence is just encouragement to industry and enterprise. Let not him who is houseless pull down the house of another, but let him work diligently and build one for himself by example assuring that his own shall be safe from violence when built."

Any seeker for leadership, either industrial of political, now or in the future, must be guided by this truth.

G. O. P. Convention Snap-Shots

The Story of 16 Nominations

By A. H. Vandenberg

SIXTH CONVENTION

The sixth Republican National Convention was the first to do the really unexpected thing. When it asembled in Cincinnati, June 14, 1876—centennial year—three great Republican leaders stood out beyond the crowd. They were James G. Blaine of Maine, who had but recently vindicated himself from the insinuations of corruption in the infamous "Mulligan Letters" episode, and whose name was presented to convention by Robert G. Ingesoll in an oratorical gem which will live as long as jewels of speech are cherished; Roscoe Conkling of New York, one of the ablest debaters of all time, but arrogant and unaproachable and utterly lacking in personal popularity; and Oliver P. Morton, Indiana's great and splendid war governor.

There wereother candidates, largely of the "favorite son' type—although Benjamin H Bristow of Kentucky was sufficiently formidable to muster 113 votes on the first ballot.

Six roll calls failed to name a choice, although Blaine led all the way by wide margin. On sixth ballot he had 308 votes; Bristow, 111; Conkling, 81; Hartranft of Pennsylvania, 50; Hayes of Ohio, 113; Morton, 85; Washburne of Illinois, 4; Wheeler of New York, 2.

On the seventh ballot the field combined against Blaine—that being Conkling's chief political aim in the convention—and a coalition of 384 votes nominated Rutherford B. Hayes, with results that all but led to civil war ere he reached the White House by a majority of one in the electoral collge. William A. Wheeler was nominated for Vice-President by acclamation.

The platform declared "the United States of America is a nation, not a league,' 'demanded the corageous enforcement of the new Constitutional Amendments, attacked polygamy, charged Democracy with "still being the same in character as when it sympathized with treason," and reiterated practically everything that had ben promulgated four years previously.

The convention of this year abolished the "unit rule" of voting—so that a delegate might be free to vote as an individual, instead of being bound by a majority of his state.

THE DAVID PRINCE EXHIBIT

When a school exhibit was recently given there were several rooms at the David Prince building open to visitors. One exhibit related to arithmetic, indicating the various methods of study used. Geography had its place, the showing including maps, charts and other features of study. Some special interest attached to the historical room where the subject matter suggested extensive history study relating to foreign lands.

Penmanship, study in English, art work and exemplification of what is done in domestic science classes all went to make up an exhibit which merited the attention given and indicated the excellence of the work done.

THE BOUNDARIES OF THE CITY

In Pittsfield there has been a good deal of newspaper discussion for several weeks past over an extension of the city limits. It seems that there are a good many people who live just outside the corporation limits of the city and the discussion which has been had purposes to take in the outlying territory.

Henry Bush, who lives just outside the limits and who believes that the "outsiders" should come in and be citizens of Pittsfield, has been one of the strongest advocates of the plan. He has published letters in both the Democrat and the Republican outlining his reasons and telling why he does not think it is fair for property owners to live just outside corporate limits, enjoy the privileges of city improvements, light, water supply and sewerage, and still escape a large part of the taxation costs.

So much interest has been aroused by discussions mentioned that a joint meeting has been called of residents inside the city and outside the city to discuss the whole subject. In order to change the boundary lines there must be favorable action at an election by both the people living inside the corporate limits and those living outside.

The Local Situation

The Pike County situation, which is familiar to a number of Jacksonville citizens, caused one of them to call attention to the discussion referred to and the proposed meeting. He said on this subject.

"The census returns for the past twenty years show that Jacksonville has made but slight gains in population. This is not because our city failed to attract inhabitants; but because most of them located just outside of the city limits and many from within the city have moved a short distance outside—especially to west and south. One of the chief difficulties of our city is that it has not had sufficient room for expansion within its own borders. Much of this outside territory should be added to the city and it is not too much to expect that some day these outside residents who now get the benefit of many city betterments, will be willing to extend the corporation lines."

HORSES

There was a time when two farmers had to produce sufficient food for two people. Today two farmers must produce food to feed six people. Only one-third of the population of the U. S. lives on farms.

The competition between the Tractors and horses is bound to result as did the competition between automobiles and horses.

Tractor power will WIN. For it os so much better, and Faster and Easier.

Wtih the Tractor, a farmer can enter his field earlier, plow deeper and plow more land.

Another point—in favor of the Wallis Tractor, it is equally efficient in spring, h otsummer, autumn or winter.

You can hasten the completion of a job by working 24 hours a day in came time for doing the work grows short.

The change from horse to Tractor opens up to you, your big opportunity.

Besides the plowing, the Tractor is used for discing, harrowing, seeding, harvesting and threshing.

Then it saws wood, shreds corn, fills silos, does hauling, road work and scores of other farm jobs.

WHITE HALL MAN CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Lyman C. Wright Reaches Eighty Third Birthday Anniversary—Schools to Close May 28—Other White Hall News Notes.

White Hall, May 22.—Today is being celebrated the eighty-third birthday anniversary of Lyman C. Wright, the first track foreman of the C. & A. when that road was built through White Hall. The celebration was a quiet affair, there being a feast confined to the members of the family. A son, E. C. Wright, resides in Portland, Oregon, and he made a recent visit answer for his presence on this annivrsary.

Mr. Wright is one of the old guard of White Hall, and is still around the neighborhood every day. He was born May 22, 1837, at the mouth of the Detroit river, eight miles from Fort Alden, Canada, his parents originiating from the then eastern part of the United States. When he was six years of ege he located with his father at Coronna, Mich., where our subject grew to manhood, and there he and Caroline V. Pierce were married December 7, 1856. She was a daughter of the late Israel Pierce who came to White Hall in the spring of 1857. A year later Mr. and Mrs. Wright also came to White Hall.

Mr. Wright had experience with railroad construction work in Canada that was pressed into use when the C. & A., then known as the Tonica, was being built from Manchester to White Hall in 1863. In 1864 he went to Murrayville and organized the first section force there, and there he remained six months, when he returned to White Hall as foreman which he followed until 1869, being the first track foreman to ride a handcar over the line after it had been built south from White Hall to Alton. He was the ranking foreman at the time. An old time card in the possession of the writer shows that the road in 1863 was operated only between Petersburg and White Hall stage connections being made at White Hall for Alton. This was continued for five years.

Retiring from the C. & A. track work, Mr. Wright conducted a boarding house in 1869-70 for the accommodation of the gangs that were constructing the old Rockford road through White Hall. He then devoted a couple of years as baggageman at the old Rockford depot, and then engaged in the dray and transfer business for a long period of years. He still resides at the old home place at the corner of Railroad and Bridgeport streets, which he bought after closing his boarding house in 1870. Mrs. Wright died on March 4, 1915, and the four children survive, as follows: E. C. Wright, Portland, Oregon; Mrs. W. A. Winn, Mrs. James Bishop and Mrs. Ernest Sullivan, all of White Hall, the latter residing with her father.

Mr. Wright has been a Mason since 1864 and a Methodist since 1860, declaring he has never been arrested in his life. He has paid taxes for fifty-six years, and his total receipts from any public funds would not exceed ten dollars.

Commencement Exericises.

The date for closing the White Hall schools for the term falls on Monday, May 31st, and the board of education has decided to make the closing date Friday, May 28, so as to avoid the necessity of a session on Monday. The events for the closing week are all set, commencing Friday, the 21st, with an exhibit of the drawings, compositions and manual training creations that attracted large numbers of patrons throughout the afternoon and evening. The baccalaureate service will be held in the Presbyterian church Sunday, the serrion being by Rev. E. C. Lucas of the Christian church.

Commencement exercises will be in the Princess theatre Friday evening, May 28th, with a program made up from talent in the class. There are thirty-seven graduates, as follows: William M. Callans, Hollys Vernon Camm, Ruby W. Seely, Ruth Adele Bridgewater, Hazel Dean Vandaveer, Mildred Mosier, Mildred Adeline Selvy, Leah Yates Peters, Emily Pearl Smith, Dorothy L. Carter, Lowell V. Kinser, Latmore E. Martin, Helen A. Gilmore, Augusta N. Close, Harold M. North, Harley C. Crabtree, Dale G. Hyle, Byron L. Hubbs, Marian Gae Rose, Ara Marceille Todd, Ernest C. Roodhouse, Charles Isaac Gilmore, Harry J. Wilson, Dorris English, Clemont Langdon Knight Gertrude E. Moynihan, Annie E. Louise Keller, Beatrice Conlee, Clifford Clinton Fostr, Ernest Lee Potts, Edna Irene Lawson, Alice Ruth Shepard, Vera Lois Allen, George Lyndell Rose, Carl E. Moulton.

A feature event will be the annual alumni banquet on Monday evening, May 31st, in the K. of P. hall. The speaker will be Hon. C. J. Moynihan of Montrose, Colorado, one of the Republican big four from that state to the national convention at Chicago. Mr. Moynihan is a member of the alumni association, and also is a leading prospect for the Colorado governorship

Encampment I. O. O. F. Booms.

Encampment Odd Fellowship in Greene copnty is camp is located at White Hall, and in recent months steps had been taken to surrender the charter and abandon the camp here. A revival of interest at Roodhouse Carrollton and Greenfield ebcame apparent during these negotiations with the result that the first batch of candidates, mostly from Roodhouse, was taken in this week, numbering twenty-one. Carrollton and Greenfield members and candidates could not get here on account of the condition of the roads, and there is ample work in store that will keep the body in a very lively condition for some time to come.

GRADUATING DRESSES REASONABLY PRICED FOR QUICK SELLING AT HERMAN'S.

HELPS UNCLE SAM LOCATE LOST PACKAGES

The American Y. M. C. A. has within the last three months, unearthed 900 lost packages addresed to Americans in France. Among the packages that were discovered in the various customhouse depositories in Paris recently was one addressed to: "Mrs. Wodrow Wilson, White House, Paris." It contained two fine silk steamer wraps which were sent from H. Santoro & Co., New York. The package was addressed to Mrs. Wilson evidently before she left Paris and was six months on the way. The fact that the name was typewritten and belonged to so prominent a person as the wife of the president of the United States, meant nothing to the customs officers through whose hands it passed.

Mr. Owen A. MacGill, postmaster of the Y. M. C. A., writing from Paris says: "I have found the undertaking so much more of a task than I had imagined that it will be a pity to give it up on April 1, when the Y. M. C. A. definitely closes its offices here. We have found more than 900 packages, and there seems to be no let up, for we recover great numbers every day. The Y. M. C. A. contributed 3,000 francs to cover expenses, and to continue the search until we have found all that have been lost I should say that another 1,500 francs would be necessary. We find that the packages have cost about 4 francs each.

"The trouble we find lies in the fact that the notices which are sent to the addresses when a package is received at the Druane Central are often made out in the wrong name as the French authorities do not understand the Amerian names. For instane, a notice was sent here to a Mr. Richmond. We discovered that it was meant for Mr. Fairbank. The sender had written 'Richmond, Virginia, in the corner which accounted for the mistake in sending the notice to 'Mr. Richmond.' We have discovered hundreds of simiar mistakes.

"We have found so far at least fifteen packages for members of the American Peace Commission which were properly addressed. The fault was in the notice, for you know that not attempt is made to deliver the packages to the addressee. Notification is given and the package must be called for. The authorities have turned over their list to us and we are figuring it out and snding the packages on as fast as we can find them. We first took a trial lot of forty pacakages and delivered everyone with the exception of two, which were rturnd to the sender. So we are gradually getting the matter cleared up."

It will not be possible to have the lost package question cleared up entirely by April 1, as the packages are still being recovered by the hundred. It is hoped, therefore ,that some means will be found to keep this branch of the Y. M. C. A. open, especially as so many requests are coming from those who have lost packages are addressed to Army Personnel.

JORDAN

In reply to the question, "Where is the saturation point in automobile sales?" Mr. Edward S. Jordan, president of the Jordan Motor Car Company, of Cleveland, replied: "When everyone drives and no automobiles wear out."

"The tendency, however, is very definitely toward standardization of the industry. With production still far behind orders, every effort is being made to bring the number of cars of each individual factory up to the minimum of production. Labor conditions in general, lack of materials, and a tightening of the money market, has caused many plants to fall below quotas set for this time of the year.

"Consolidation of plants is a problem of the future. The need of today that confronts the automobile manufacturer is not the market saturation but rather, how to produce cars to cover the orders already on file. No doubt the time will come when the automobile industry will shake down to a few great controlling companies. This is seemingly a long way off, however.

"When the day comes when automobiles will be bought rather than sold, then the test period will have arrived to determine how many of the cars built today can survive without consolidating with other car manufacturers.

"Such a move would bring production up to a higher degree of efficiency and would minimize financial difficulties which are always so prevalent when supply exceeds demand."

Radical Reductions in Retail Prices

are being made in certain lines of merchandise all over the country JUST NOW. Forty days and forty nights of cold rains have delayed the gentle spring and have put a chill into the heart of the average overstocked dealer—JUST NOW.

The daily press—both metropolitan and the extremely provincial—have been giving the public a lot of mis-information regarding merchandise and the selling of merchandise. Carefully weighing the best information we can gather from our biggest connections, who are leading manufacturers and importers, we are assured that owing to a lack of production, to labor troubles, and to the enormous demand from consumers, we cannot purchase goods for immediate delivery or for fall delivery for any less price than we did for this spring's trade. Consequently we and thousands of other merchants are now placing orders for the fall goods on the basis of present prices. So, JUST NOW, during what we see as a temporary break in retail prices we advise our customers TO BUY, here or elsewhere, selecting judiciously what you need.

MANY PLANTING.

Quite a number of farmers in town yesterday reported planting of corn in progress or completed. It seems the rain of Friday and Saturday morning was not very general nor very heavy and consequently many fields rolling and well tiled were dry enough for the planter so that with such warm damp weather as we had Saturday the seed should soon germinate.

ROUND TABLE HELD THE YEARLY ELECTION

Picnic at Fairview Saturday Largely Attended — Mayor Crabtree Explained Purpose of Civic Pride League. .. ....

The Domestic Science Round Table held the annual picnic Saturday at Fairview, Mrs. T. J. Pitner's beautiful suburban home. Just at present the gardens present a very riot of spring colors.

The preparations for the picnic dinner had been generous and it was thoroly enjoyed at the noon hour. Mayor E. E. Crabtree was a guest of the Round Table and had been asked to present some facts about the recently organized Civic Pride league. He found members of the Round Table thoroly in sympathy with this program.

Dr. T. J. iPtner spoke briefly on the importance of the work done by the Woman's clubs of Jacksonville and mentioned the great pleasure that he and Mrs. Pitner had in having the members of the Round Table as guests. Mrs. O. F. Buffe, president of the Woman's club, discussed civic work along general lines and the possibilities that it offers to women for useful activities.

Mrs. E. C. Lambert, so long identified with the club life of Jacksonville, told something of work done by the Woman's club along civic lines in Minneapolis.

At the business session the following officers were elected:

President—Mrs. John Reeve.
First Vice President—Mrs. Ed Herald.
Second Vice President—Mrs. John Conover.
Recording Secretary—Mrs. Joseph Mallen.
Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. W. A. Baumgardner.
Treasurer—Mrs. Bert Killam

Explained Work of League.

In explaining the work of the Civic Pride league Mr. Crabtree said in part:

"Some two or three weeks ago I was in Springfield and visited the State Fire Marshal's office and in talking about city affairs I told him of the organization or contemplated organization of this Civic Pride League. He said When you get that league organized let me know I want to come to Jacksonville and talk to those women. I said you don't want to talk with the women, you want to talk with the men. 'No, that's where you are wrong. Now apparently in Jacksonville we have started upon a co-operative plan and without co-operation a city can do but very little. "The citizens police were organized and through co-operation have accomplished much

"The citizens of a community must be behind the city officials if anything is done and so it is with this organization that Mrs. Clary and Mrs. Montgomery have organized. 'United we stand; divided we fall.' Last summer the calls regarding vacant lots, back door yards, where weeds were growing rank could not be taken care of by our city officials. The direct object of the Civic Pride League is a clean-up of the town, meaning vacant lots, streets, alleys, etc., beautify the place and create satisfied citizens. I appointed the two diretcors of this organization, Mrs. Clary and Mrs. Montgomery, and these ladies have elected their helpers. The city is being cleaned up first before we enter upon our duties and because this is the general clean-up time of the year. Then too, we want everything ready.

"The idea is to create a spirit of law enforcement—keeping grass out of the streets and weeds cut on vacant lots, etc. An object of the league is to reduce fire loss. The more fires we have the more our insurance rates increase. Compulsory voting I am ready to say I am for, because this is a government of the people and it is a government by the people.

"Every spring it costs heavily to clean the catch basins of the city. There is an ordinance prohibiting throwing of grass, etc., in the gutters. Cincinnati started such a clean up campaign down town and reduced the fire insurance $16,000 in a year."

BABY SWANS AT NICHOLS PARK.

Three baby swans have put in their appearance at Nichols park and the mother is sitting on two more eggs hoping to bring them out too. Another swan was about ready to bring off her brood when the great storm some days ago overflowed the nest. It is interesting to see the father swan care for the little ones while the mate is yet occupied with the nest.

FIRST ELI WHEEL IS TWENTY YEARS OLD

Interesting Story of How an Industry Was Started—Big New Factory to Keep Open House.

It is a matter of some interest to mention that today is the 20th anniversary of the operation of a Big Eli wheel in Jacksonville. It was May 23, 1900, that the first wheel of the kind was put into operation here in Jacksonville on the east side of the public square. W. E. Sullivan, who is today the president of the ELI BRIDGE CO., was the inventor of the wheel and it was built under his supervision by the Illinois Steel Bridge Co. At that time the company was operating in a small brick building located on ground now in use in the Burlington freight yards. James H. Clements of South Clay avenue had a one-third interest in the wheel and helped to build and operate it.

While the receipts of the first day's operation of the wheel were less than $6, Mr. Sullivan was not discouraged and subsequently went into the manufacture of wheels in Roodhouse. The removal to this city and the erection of the fine and spacious building near the Wabash station here is a matter of recent history.

Today in many foreign lands there are Big Eli wheels in operation and this extensive business was built up by the mail order plan as the company has never used the services of a traveling man.

The company wishes to observe the anniversary but as it falls on Sunday open house will be kept Monday. The public is therefore invited to visit the plant from 2 to 5 o'clock in the afternoon or from 7 to 10 o'clock in the evening. The machinery will not be in operation at the night hour but the visitors will have the opportunity of noting the splendid lighting method which is used in the factory. It was thru the activity of the chamber of commerce that the Eli Bridge plant is located in this city and the industry is one in which the city can readily take pride. The members of the firm are men of worth and standing and their coming has made a substantial addition to local citizenship.

THE BEAUTIES AT NICHOLS PARK

Recent visitors to Nichols park could not fail to have been much impressed with the floral beauties there. The frequent rains while thy have caused grief for farmers, have given more than the usual spring growth to the foliage and flowering plants. While the spring has been accounted backward there has been enough warm weather to bring out the flowers and it is certainly a wonderful sight now that greets the eye of the park visitor. The beauties there give proof both of the excellence of the present work and good judgment shown in times past in the landscape work.

Chief of Police Kiloran was yesterday in receipt of a message asking officials here to be on the alert for a navy deserter, who, it is thought, left the C. & A. train either here or at Mason City. Donald Underwood is the name of the man and this is said to be the third time he has deserted from the service.

The message to the local police department, which was from John J. Hinton, a navy officer, described the deserter as wearing a blue serge suit and cap, height about 5 feet ,11 inches.

AMERICAN LEGION WILL DECORATE GRAVES

Local Post Will Receive Funds for this Purpose — Movement Nationwide — Contributions May be Left at Journal, Courier or With Adjutant Allen Jacobs.

Decoration Day is not far off and there are many graves of Americans in France which should not be forgotten. The American Legion has made plans to decorate these graves; money will be raised in Jacksonville and forwarded to the national headquarters, from which place it will be cabled direct to the American embassy in France together with money raised in all parts of the country. Floral tributes will be purchased there and placed on the graves.

The money must be sent to the headquarters by Thursday, May 27, and should be left at the Journal or the Courier office or with Allen Jacobs, adjutant of the local legion post before that date. There will be no personal solicitation for this is strictly an American cause and the legion feels that the people hold the fallen dead in such high esteem that they will contribute without being asked personally.

The move is nation wide and newspapers all over the country are aiding the legion in their plan for the general decoration of the American World War dead.

Many relatives have made plans to send decorations but the legion will decorate the graves regardless of whether personal plans have been made.

Most, if not all, of the bodies have been collected into two great cemeteries in France, one near the Marne, and the other in the Argone. All the graves are registered.

Why Brunswick Tires Win Preference

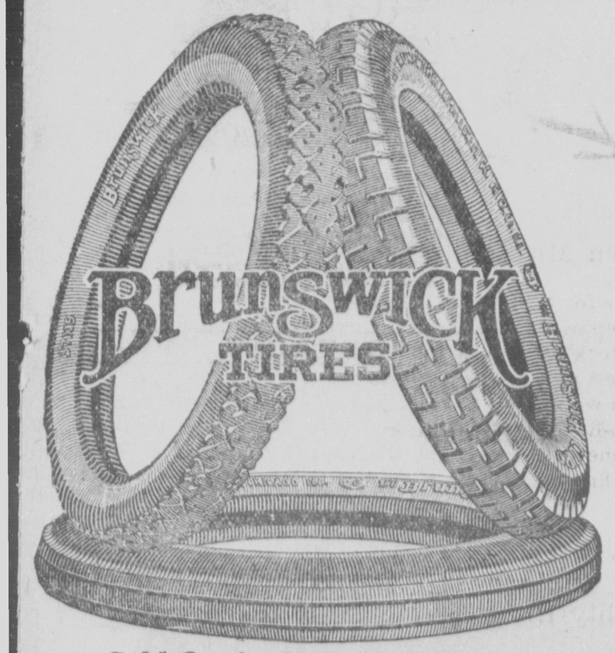

There are two main reasons—one, the name itself, which certifies superfine value—the other, that time tells the same story.

Thus reputation and performance unite in giving you all you expect—and more.

Yet Brunswicks cost no more than like-type tires. Many motorists would pay more readily, but the Brunswick idea is to GIVE the utmost, rather than to GET the utmost. And this has been true since 1845. You can appreciate what Brunswick Standards mean by trying ONE Brunswick Tire. It will be a revelation. You'll agree that you could not buy a better, regardless of price.

And, like other motorists, you'll decide to have ALL Brunswicks. Then you'll know supreme satisfaction from your tires—longer life, minimum trouble, lower cost.

THE LINES OF NECKWEAR that are now being exhibited here, are calculated to bring a pleasant smile to the most discriminating and best informed men.

INDEED, IT IS WELL to be tie-ducated, for there is to the discerning eye a vast difference between tie silks.

—The secret of warm-weather comfort is—wear the coolest, most sensible underwear you can find—and a cool, pleasant shirt, one of our fine summer shirts—then put on a straw or Panama—and don't think about the weather.

MANY FACTORS go to making these the ties that good dressers choose.

FOR ONE THING the fine selected silk yarns—

FOR ANOTHER, the particular depth and tones of the colors—an art in itself and one in which few makers excel.

AND THE THIRD, the judgment displayed in harmonizing the colors.

YES SIR, IT PAYS to buy your ties here, for they will win approval in the best dressed circles.

Tons of Grinding Weight Must Float on Unbroken Oil Films

Metal must not touch metal. The millions of tiny teeth on those surfaces must be kept apart--literally floated--on an unbroken film of oil.

This layer of oil—thinner than a sheet of paper, must be strong enough, not only to resist the excessive heat developed in the motor, and the wearing, tearing action of sliding pistons and whirling shafts, but must retain its body under the tremendous weight of the impact of explosion.

If it fails, excessive wear develops; and there follows that common chain of motor troubles—worn bearings, scored cylinders, and rapid motor depreciation.

The Famous "Top-Tip" Can

For the first time gives you a practical HOME SUPPLY of oil—five gallons that you can pour without lifting an ounce or slopping a drop. Costs no more than the ordinary five-gallon can. Obtainable only with Wadhams Tempered Motor Oil.

Wadhams Tempered Motor Oil

offers greater service—durability than ANY other MOTOR OIL because endurance is TEMPERED into it by the Wadhams' exclusive process.

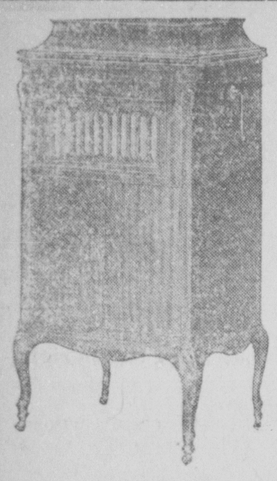

This process gives you oil of a new value—oil of greater heat resistance, higher lubricating power under severest conditions of service. Its particles have not been broken down and already headed toward dissolution by the destructive over-heating and scorching necessary in old-time refining.

PRACTICALLY CARBONLESS—the perfection of the Tempering process results in an almost complete absence of free carbon—by a series of the most rigid tests, less free carbon than is found in any other motor oil. The residue is a light, flaky soot, which blows out of the exhaust instead of baking on valves and pistons in the power-stealing clinker of ordinary oil.

Farm Bureau Notes

Pig Club Prospects—While H. F. Wolters, assistant state leader of junior extension work, was here, we visited Franklin, Murrayville, Chapin, Concord, Arcadia and Literberry to enroll boys and girls in pig club work. We have made a satisfactory start at all those places, and expect to meet all the boys and girls again before June 1. This work is open to boys and girls from 12 to 20.

Meeting for Wool Growers—On Monday and Tuesday C. R. Crawford, special sheep extension specialist of the U. S. Bureau of Animal Industry will give two shearing, docking and castrating demonstrations in Morgan conty. The first of these will be given at 1:30 p. m., Monday at C. E. Drake farm northeast of Chapin. The second will be given at Rex Ranson's farm three miles north of Woodson at 1:30 p. m., Tuesday. In the shearing demonstrations a hand turned clipper will be used. The sacks and twine recommended by the livestock market-department will be shown, and the method of preparing fleeces for market. The wool pool will also be explained.

Wool Pool—Last season no general shipment was made from Morgan county to the wool pool. However, several of our farmers shipped individually. The chief drawback was waiting for the settlement which was made after the wool was sold, if you want to know how he fared, we have the complete record of his transactions. The wool netted him 58 cents. The commercial grades of wool may be seen in a case in the farm bureau office.

Grain Grading Demonstrations—On June 1 the Federal Grain Grades will be officially a thing of the past. However, they will probably continue in commercial circles. We have arranged for a demonstration of the method of determining the grades of grain at the terminal markets. This will be given at the farm bureau headquarters on June 4 by a well prepared specialist. Every buyer and seller of grain ought to be interested in these demonstrations. If they are not we are at sea as to what to stage for these particular people.

Grain Marketing Conference—At 2 p. m., June 15 we shall be fortunate enough to have in our midst a grain marketing conference for the 20th congressional district. William G. Eckhardt, the executive committee of the I. A. A., representatives of farmers elevators, presidents and secretaries of farm bureaus, farm advisers and several bankers from each county will be present. It is our duty to arrange for a suitable meeting place.

Hessian Fly—An examination of a field of wheat near the eastern county line revealed the larvae of the Hessian fly. These white maggots are among the roots at this time.

Group Work—A farm bureau with a membsrship as large as Morgan County must depend to a greater extent than formerly on giving the members service thru group meetings and organizations, which serve members In accordance with this principle we are trying to cover the county with demonstration meetings from time to time. Those members who get the most out of farm bureau work attend these meetings whenever it is along a line of interest to that member. The work here has now gotten to be more than a one man job. Altho we shall continue to give members individual service as formerly, yet the best service must come thru group work.

Many men express surprise when they learn that the prices of PANAMA HATS quoted by FRANK BYRNS are NO HIGHER than former years.

AN INTERESTING PAPER.

Mrs. J. Herman has loaned the Journal a copy of the Amaroc News, an eight paged paper published daily in Coblenz, Germany, the name being an abreviation of the words "American Army of Occupation." It has five wide columns, and is published for the benefit of the American soldiers stationed in Deutchland and the price is one mark, 24 cents, nominally but somewhat less than in good money. It has a telegraphic page on which dispatches from prominent parts of the world are printed, a column of church notices, including Roman Catholic, Christian Science and Protestant, a page devoted to sports, a social department, a one page story of a shocking crime, a soldier murdered while he slept, a few columns of ads, letters from various sources and an interesting account of the formation of a post of the American Legion of which Mrs. Herman's nephew, Harry Siff, is a charter member and on the membership committee.

A glance at the Y. M. C. A. program for Sunday would soon convince any fair minded observer of the value of that worthy organization. Along with suitable religious services at 28 stations were announcements of motion pictures, symphony orchestra, orchestra concert, casino concert, tennis, two ball games, swimming pool, open to all members of the A. F. in C and allies, vocal solos and many other features. The Y's also paid special attention to the base hospital and for the invalids there had a fine program arranged and another for the convalescent camp.

A NEW WAY TO HANDLE NAILS.

Terrance Brennan has returned from Quincy where he went to participate in the Red Men work a few days since and while there called on the Tenk Hardware Co., a large concern doing an immense wholesale business. He said they had very hard work to get goods of any kind and offered him all sorts of inducements to make up a lot of tinware which he has not the time to do. He said they had an opportunity to get some car loads of nails but the factory had no kegs so the company said send them anyway so the manufacturers loaded the nails into a box car with forks and the company in Quincy handled them the same way putting up the nails in packages, sacks and all sorts of ways and glad to get them.

Cole Aero-EIGHT
BALANCED TO ZERO

Why does the Aero-EIGHT pick-up so swiftly and have so great a fund of reserve power?

An aviator can tell you the moment he takes the wheel and feels the car respond to the touch of the accelerator.

It's the minute balance of every unit that enables the mechanism to respond without effort or restraint when under way.

Aerotype engineering has increased the limits of motor car possibility, and Cole engineers have been the first to apply these principles to the automobile.

Aeroplane balance is one of the characteristics which the name of the Aero-EIGHT implies. It is balanced to zero, so that every unit is able to function 100 per cent.

PAIGE
The Most Beautiful Car in America

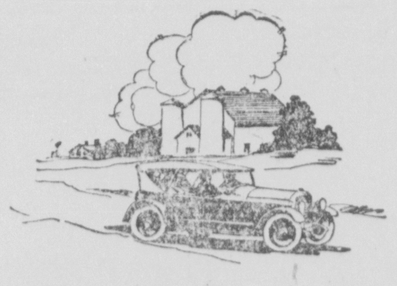

THE mere fact of owning a motor car counts for but little these days unless it is a car of which its owner may justly be proud.

And this, we believe, is one of the reasons why the Paige Seven-Passenger Touring Car commends itself so highly to the car-owning public. It excites such general admiration that it is a constant source of pride to its owner.

Ever since the Paige Six-55 first appeared three years ago, it has held an unquestioned position of leadership among the finest seven-passenger motor cars on the American market.

Its handsome body, sturdy chassis and smooth-running motor are features often commented upon as being quite exceptional in a car of such moderate price.

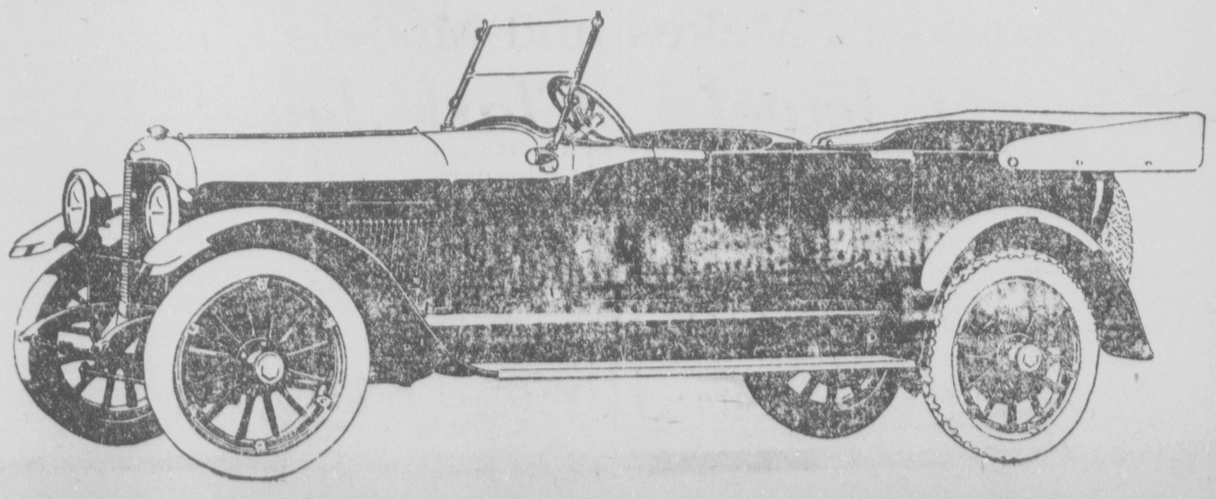

You have undoubtedly, at some time or other, ridden in a Paige Six-55. But, if not, you will certainly wish to do so before deciding on your next motor car purchase.

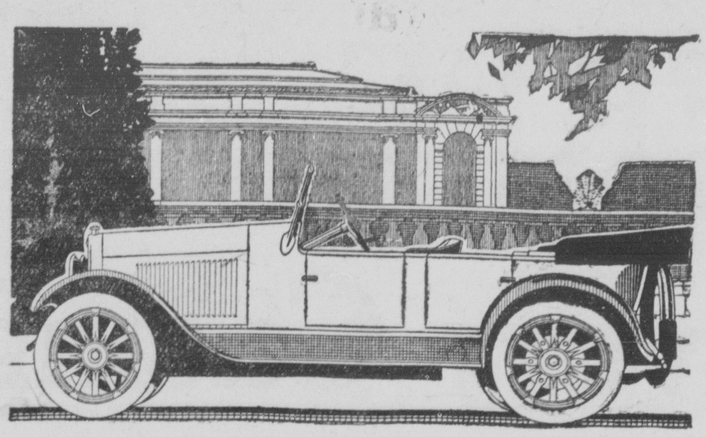

With the demand for the Paige Six-55 far exceeding our utmost production efforts, a prompt decision is advisable. Orders placed now mean just so much more of the best touring season assured for your enjoyment.

The Story that Service Records Tell about the

CHALMERS

Hot Spot and Ram's-horn

A business man walked into a Chalmers store: "If you will let me examine the service records of the Chalmers for the last three years I will tell you whether or not I will buy a car from you."

The records were laid before him. He bought a Chalmers. Three years ago Hot Spot and Ram's-horn were first used in a Chalmers.

In that period replacements per car per year have become a remarkably small item.

For Hot Spot and Ram's-horn, by their ingenious ways of preparing the inferior "gas" of the day for combustion, have built up a series of virtues:

1—They get more power out of low grade "gas."

2—They get smoother power.

3—They prevent the frequent fouling of spark plugs.

4—They prevent raw "gas" from trickling down past the pistons into the crankcase. (Thus the lubricating oil is not thinned out and such troubles as burned bearings and scored cylinders are notably absent.)

5—They reduce vibration. Not only does a Chalmers run smoothly, but this smoothness is a continuous performance.

Hence repairs are small and replacements infrequent.

The service records denote a diminishing influence in Chalmers cost, and in the meantime the obvious result has been increased impetus to sales.

That is but another reason for that daily growing impression that Chalmers is one of the few great cars of the world.

Along with Kitchen Cabinets, Electric Cleaners, Electric Washers and other labor-saving appliances, the GAS RANGE in the home has come to be recognized as an absolute essential.

The GAS RANGE means economy—an actual saving in dollars and cents. It means convenience and comfort because of the elimination of dust, dirt, and coal or woodstove heat, so annoying during the summer season. It means better cooked foods because of steadier, better regulated heat where it is needed.

For this last we would be glad of an opportunity to explain to you the great advantage of the "Lorain" heat regulator for gas ovens, which eliminates all uncertainty and the necessity for watching the baking or cooking.

The annual concert of the Madrigal club, assisted by Miss Miller and Miss LaZelle, and a string orchestra, will be given Friday evening, May 28, at 8:15 o'clock. This concert is free to the public.

The repertoire classes, under the direction of Miss Edith M. Robinson, have been an interesting feature of the College of Music this year. Such study is a vital constructive force in music education and embodies the newer ideas in piano study as demonstrated by Percy Grainger, the eminent composer pianist, with whom Miss Robinson studied last summer.

Miss Janice Prather, a pupil of Miss Robinson, won first place in the Roodhouse High school piano concert contest, second place in the Greene county contest, and fourth place place in the Illinois College Interscholastic contest.

Miss Lucille Gruber, pupil of Miss LaZelle, sang last week at the Sacred Heart church in Franklin.

BLOOD

Public Health Department

BLOOD TELLS. What does the blood tell? Of one Flesh and BLOOD created He all men equal. This is the first time that the importance of the blood was brot to the attention of man. Beginning with Galen, 164 A. D. who first discovered that arteries contained blood, and Harvey, 1640, discovered the circulation of the blood, up to the present time—the blood has been a fertile field of research and investigation. Yet as a definite diagnostic factor but few things are known, notwithstanding the many sky-rocket claims of discovery you hear or read in the papers sporadically.

WE ADMIT THAT all children who are born with pure blood in their veins are born equal, but we declare with all the power of our soul that the child robbed of the right to be well born is not only an inferior, but a burden instead of an asset to humanity.

KEEP THIS IN MIND—A little blood, anatomy, etc., would make this article better understood.

SINCE THE ORIGIN of man, PURE BLOOD has remained stationary in its composition. Only diseases and external influences have altered—not its composition, but its relative constituents or quality. The blood is the liquid medium thru which oxygen and food are taken to the cells of the body and the waste matter removed. Then it becomes at once the most important fluid in the body, hence PURE BLOOD is all important to a healthy MIND and BODY. In composition—plasma (the watery part), red corpuscles (erythrocytes), white corpuscles (leucocytes), and blood plates—are the component parts.

THE RED CELLS, the most important, in the healthy adult male, should number 5 million per cubic millimeter; in the female 4½ million — any great reduction means a disease. The red corpuscle is composed of two elements—stroma and the all important substance called hemoglobin. This hemoglobin is a very complex substance. It contains the iron of the cell—it unites with oxygen in the lungs for purifying the blood. The red corpuscles live only a short while—every hour millions of them fall to pieces. The hemoglobin is not lost but is taken up by other cells and forms yellowish brown and darker pigments (coloring matter) out of which the color of the skin, hair and eyes come. These coloring agents are spoken of as Endogenious pigments.

THERE IS TO BE FOUND another colored material in the body—breathed in thru the lungs—or taken thru the stomach—or skin—or fluids which impregnate the body with colored deposits, and these foreign bodies are called Exogenous pigments.

HERE IS WHERE many enthusiasts, no doubt, in trying to solve the real pigment that characterizes races, etc., make the fatal mistake of taking this class of material—because of the quantity and accessibility—as the secret of blood determination. Such a person usually arouses from his mental delving to find his discovery "like the toothache that leaves when the dentist appears."

THE LACK OF NORMAL pigment (usually hereditary) is shown in some people of very little coloring in eyes, skin or hair—as albinos. They suffer from the dazzling effects of light. Localized abseice of pigment in patches, presents a condition known as vitiligo (white spors—usually beginning on lips, face and hands).

A WORD ABOUT WHITE blood corpuscles (leucocytes). They protect the body from pathogenic (disease forming) bacteria; they aid in absorbing of fats, etc.; they take part in clotting and maintaining normal blood plasma. The blood plates become of interest only in disease.

(SUMMARY)

THE BLOOD when pure is as God made it.

IT DOES NOT afford many positive diagnostic facts.

IT DOES NOT give any evidence as to difference in color, races or individuals.

IT DOES NOT—in its pure state—show any difference in patriotism, loyalty or respect for the law.

IT DOES GIVE valuable aids in determining many diseases and positive diagnosis in a few.

IT DOES TELL that a great reduction in its corpuscles warns you of some abnormality.

IT DOES TELL that SYPHILIS is the only HEREDITARY DISEASE.

IT DOES TELL that the child born with the virus of Syphilis in its blood begins life everlastingly handicapped, and of the 5 millions of children of abnormal mentality, 65% of them made so by "sins of the fathers."

IT DOES TELL of the 70,000 blind children in the United States — 30,000 of whom are made so by "sns of the fathers."

IT DOES TELL of the 200,000 feeble minded, epileptic and imbecile children —60% are made so by "sins of the fathers."

IT DOES TELL that 45% of the criminals of the United States are mentally depraved on account of Syphilitic virus.

IT DOES TELL that there are 12,000,000 inhabitants of our country with blood poisoned by "sins of the fathers."

IT DOES TELL of the 12,000 divorces granted (3 every 5 minutes of a legal working day)—60% are due to unbearable dispositions due to "sins of the fathers."

IT DOES TELL that insanity — mental and physical degeneracy are increasing faster than the population.

IT DOES TELL that mental and physical weaklings should not be permitted to marry—and yet—only eight states are doing anything to prevent this evil. Last year our great state alone spent millions to improve the pedigree of our cattle and swine and NOT ONE CENT to improve the pedigree of the children.

IT DOES TELL, Mothers and Fathers, to see to it that the boy or girl shall not enter wedlock with one whose blood is not "Royal" (pure blood).

IT DOES TELL all of these and more.

"By His Blood are ye saved."

Daily Market Report

WEEK END TRADING ON EXCHANGE DULL

NEW YORK, May 22.—The usual week-end settlement of professional contracts marked today's dull and perfunctory session of the stock exchange, early firmness giving way to irregular changes at the close.

Mexican news stimulated a moderate demand for oils of that particular group. Motors and kindred specialties, notably rubber tire issues, were slightly higher and sugars, tobaccos and leathers helped to round out the meagre total at advances extending from fractions to almost two points.

Rails were inclined to extend yesterday's gains, and equipments made some upward progress.

Steel stocks were inclined to rise with the general list, but fell back toward the end, when Crucible became the objective of a bear attack, reacting rather sharply on light offerings. Sales amounted to 335,000 shares.

Dealings in bonds were small, liberty and victory issues retaining much of yesterday's rally, while the general list was steady. Total sales (par value) aggregated $8,750,000. On call for week the old U. S. 2s lost ¼, the 4s¾ and Panama 3s 2 per cent.

CORN MARKET LITTLE STEADIER

CHICAGO, May 22.—Notwithstanding that such nervousness was evident in the corn market today renewal of stampede selling which had been looked for failed to appear. Heavy margin calling together with other precautionary measures against wild trading proved effective toward bringing back conditions greatly different from the semipanic 24 hours before. Closing quotations were unsettled, ½c to 3c net lower, with July $1.57½ to $1.58½ and September $1.48¾ to $1.50. The finish in oats ranged from 4c decline to 1¾c advance, and in provisions varied from 60c off to a rise of 5c.

Altho bearish sentiment predominated, a good deal of the time in the corn market, and especially in the last thirty minutes, there were signs that some influential interests regarded the drastic decline this week as having sufficinetly discounted for the present all depressing factors.

Oats were governed chiefly by the action of corn.

Provisions like grain showed comparitive steadiness, except pork which dropped as a result of lack of demand.

CAME TO RESCUE IN NICK OF TIME

Strength Gone, Nerves Shattered, She Could Not Sleep Over Two Hours at a Time.

"Two months ago I was almost a nervous wreck but today I am enjoying perfect health," said Mrs. L. D. Blane of 1601 North Jefferson street, Peoria, Ill., while telling of her recovery since taking Tanlac.

"A little over a year ago when the influenza was raging so I had a bad spell of it and it left me in a dreadful, run-down, nervous condition. I didn't relish a thing I ate and I could retain nothing on my stomach. I would bloat up with gas terribly and at times it just seemed that my breath would stop and I became so nauseated I turned almost deathly sick. My heart would palpitate something awful and many times I thought I was going to die. If I started either up or down the stairs I would give out completely as I felt like I was choking to death and I would have to sit down and rest My nerves were shattered and I felt so miserable all the time that I finally had to give up my housework altogether. My kidneys worried me continually day and night and I didn't know what it was to sleep more than an hour or two at a time without waking up. I also suffered terribly from sharp, cutting pains in my ankles, and I could find nothing that would relieve them. I was as weak as a baby and I felt that I couldn't bear up much longer.

"Well, Tanlac came to my rescue just in time and it was certainly a happy day for me when I started taking it. Right away everything began to brighten up, my appetite returned and my troubles commenced to lose their grip. And now I am perfectly well and am again doing my housework. I am enjoying my meals because I can digest everything I eat and without a bit of trouble. My nerves and kidneys never bother me in the least and I am sleeping fine every night. Th epains also have left my ankles and I can be on my feet thruout the day without even so much as an ache. I feel even better and stronger than I did before I had the influenza and I am grateful, indeed, to the medicine that has brought me health and happiness."

Tanlac is sold in Jacksonville by Coover & Shreve and by the leading drug store in every town. —Adv.

COMMENCEMENT WEEK EVENTS AT BLUFFS

High School Commencement Exercises at Opera House Wednesday Evening—Civil War Veteran Dies—Other Bluffs News.

Bluffs, May 21.—Commencement exercises of Bluffs High school were held at the opera house Wednesday evening, May 19, 1920.

Program:
Overture, Selected—Orchestra.
Invocation—Rev. E. J. Rees.
Music, Selected—Orchestra.
Vocal Solo, "Sing On, (Denza) —Vera McCaleb.
Address—Supt. I. M. Allen, Springfield.

The opera house was prettily decorated in palms, ferns and cut flowers, the colors pink and green predominating. The back ground being green. Porch furniture was used on the stage and the graduates sat in groups rather than in the usual row, thereby presenting a more cheerful and pleasing aupearance. The evening address by Supt. I. M. Allen was of unusual interest and those who had the pleasure of hearing him with one accord agreed that the address was all too short. He chose for his theme the simple subject: "Why Do We Go to School?" Simplicity was the keynote thruout, the gist of which we need not go to school to learn. Teachers are all around and about us.

We learn from those with whom we come in contact. A child at the age of five years has acquired more knowledge than he acquires during the remainder of his life. Education cultivates, broadens disciplines the mind. Knowledge cannot be imparted, but can be acquired only by careful and diligent study and application of the principles upon which all true knowledge is based.

Song, "Stars Brightly Shining" (Denza)—Girls glee club.
Presentation of Diplomas—C. M. Ritter, president of board of education.
Music—Orchestra.
Benediction.

The High School Alumni was held at the school building Thursday night, thereby bringing to a close a very successful term of school under a corps of efficient teachers.

Commencement week is eagerly awaited with pleasure and the citizens and patrons feel that the school is making great strides in the way of advancement. We deeply regret the loss of Miss Faye Reese, lady principal who goes to Griggsville next year.

Her strong personality, her winning ways, her gentle refinement and culture has won for her the admiration of patrons and pupils alike and the refining gentle influence, shed like sunbeafs during her two short years in the Bluffs High, time cannot erase. The board was indeed fortunate in being able to retain Miss Helen Dinsmore and Miss Norma Perbix.

They, too, have won the admiration of all and are building high ideals in the minds of their pupils by the noble examples they have placed before them.

Taps sounded for Henry Harrison Daniels, civil war veteran, at the home of his daughter, Mrs Chloe Allbright, May 18, 1920, after an illness of nine days, aged 71 years, 6 months and 27 days.

The deceased was born near Barry, Ill., in Pike county, Oct. 21, 1848, and spent the greater part of his life in Scott county. At the early age of 16 years he responded to his country's call by enlisting in the army serving in Company D, 151 Illinois Infantry until the close of the war. Dec. 18, 1870 he was united in marriage to Mary Jane Prather. Three children, John Hardin, Guthrie, Okla., William and Ollie Bell, deceased came to bless this union. On Dec. 18, 1874, his wife preceded him in death. In 1878 he was again united in marriage to Mrs. Alice French. Seven children were born to this union. Alonzo and Benjamin, have preceded the father in death The following survive: D. H. Daniels, Quincy; Mrs. Goldie Perkins, Beardsttown; Mrs. Chloe Allbright, Bluffs; Mrs. Flossie McLaughlin, Quincy; D. Gilbert Daniels, Wessington, S. D. Three sisters survive, Mrs. Marcus Evans, Winchester; Mrs. Thomas Drake, Denver, Col.; and Mrs. Perry Cox of Enid, Okla. One sister, Mary, died in infancy, also two brothers, John F. and David Daniels, have preceded him in death. One half-sister, Mary, and three brothers, Charley, James and Alonzo, have also preceded him. Besides his wife, seventeen grandchildren and a host of relatives and friends are left to mourn his death. Funeral services will be held at the Christian church in Winchester at 2 o'clock p. m. Thursday, the Rev. E. J. Rees of Bluffs officiating.

Interment was made in the cemetery at Winchester, the former home of the deceased.

Class Day Exercises.

Class exercises of the Bluffs High school were held at Lewis' opera house Tuesday evening, May 18, with the following program:

Song, Selected—Boys Quartet.
Salutatory—Edward Middendorf.
Class History — Raymond Knoeppel and Amanda Middendorf.
Vocal Duet, "An Orchard Cradle Song," — Vera McCaleb andZela Mueller.
Presentation of the Cane—Matilda Northrup.
Class Poem—Russell Arundel and Marie Rolf.
Vocal Solo, Selected — Harry Lankford.
Class Will—Meryl Kortz and Russell Arundel.
Presentation of Memorial — Raymond Knoeppel.
Violin Solo, "Salut d'Armour —Vernon Black.
Class Prophecy—Written by Ogden Sears and Class.
Valedictorian— Beulah Green.
Motto—Step by Step.
Colors—Olive Green and Pink.
Flower—Pink Rose.

A crowded house greeted the young graduates and on this occasion they were at their best, and with history, orations and song made this evening one long to be remembersd by the citizens of Bluffs and patrons of the school.

Miss Beulah Green aspires to reach a higher plane of activity and in September will re-enter school to take up a regular college course.

Meryl Kortz will take up the duties of school master at Brush Colleg one and a half miles east of town.

Miss Amanda Middendorf will teach her home school at Oak Dale. While the other members of the class have not fully decide upon their plans. We feel safe in predicting that their high school course has not been in vain as they under the guidance of a splendid corps of teachers are imbued with an ambition to to things worth while.

Because Her Mother Was Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Brooklyn, N. Y.—"I could not write all my thanks for your blessed medicine, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was in a very bad condition and had lost two babies. One of my good friends told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and after had taken eight or ten bottles I felt like a different woman. I kept on taking it until my baby girl was born last month and we have had her christened Lydia Elizabeth. I wish you to publish my letter to benefit other women who are suffering as I was."—Mrs. KATHERINE KURZBACKER, 1086 Manhattan Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Women who suffer from any feminine ailment should not lose hope until they have tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

The many convincing testimonials constantly published in the newspapers ought to be proof enough for women who suffer from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the medicine they need.
